YOUR LIFE!

H. D. McHENRY & SON, HARTFORD, KY.

Important to TAXPAYERS!

Within the few remaining months of my term as Sheriff, all my business must be closed up. A great amount of the

is still unpaid, and yet the first of October requires me to pay over the greater portion of it. I have waited patiently for the people to get through with their crops and harvests. I must now collect—you must pay. From now until the first of October, I and my deputies will give our attention to Taxes. Do not wait to be called on—call on the deputies or come to the office. After the first of October, levys will be made for all uncollected taxes, and costs and per centage added. Pay at once, and save this. I trust no one will delay payment and then blame me for the consequences of their own neglect. The financial safety of myself, my sureties and the county demand promptness and I am determined to see to these interests. Taxpayers, pay at once!

Respectfully,

R. P. HOCKER, Sheriff.

L. B. Fields, who has been Deputy County Clerk of Ohio county, for the past 3 years, has been appointed and has received his commission as Field Clerk in the railway service, and is now running between Louisville and Cincinnati. There were 50 applicants for the place he now has. We wish the young gentleman the success he justly merits.

The Hartford Meeting at Beaver Dam yesterday was not well represented. There were not enough present to prevent a large gathering, and nothing was done. Where the next meeting will be held was not determined. Henderson, Ky., was well represented by members of the Board of Trade who think every thing will finally center at that rising young city.

At the 100 N. 1st St. office were sent out from J. B. Bann & Co's warehouse establishment in one wagon, both going to Hamilton Mills. They were for two young ladies, who did not get Friday night, 10th inst. of (youthful love). Ellen Carter, daughter of J. W. Carter, and her sister, Mary, who is the 2nd year of her age. Mary, daughter of Peter May, died about two o'clock of the same morning. She was 12 years old.

The case of the Commonwealth vs. Faint Hayes for maliciously wounding Lewis Davis at Hockport on August 10th, was called before his Honor, Judge McHenry, on Tuesday last. The trial was held in the absence of Hayes, he being unable to attend. Defendant testified that Hayes carried him and threw two glasses at him before he died. Both the Commonwealth witnesses and defendant contradicted this. Hayes was held over under a $500 bond. He is still improving at this writing. From one year, he will be out of the pen.

The L. H. & W. President Fawcett and Prof. John R. Proctor came down from Louisville yesterday. They were met here by Judge McHenry and his clerk, Mr. R. F. Baird of Hartford. They talked over the interest of the road project after dinner. Prof. Proctor will leave for Louisville and will go East tonight. Prof. Proctor will make a survey of the mineral resources along the line of the road. The prospects of the road are still fair, but no proposition has yet been made for all the town or people along the line.

not concern them. Gentlemen, I am a free born American citizen, and I thank God I am allowed to live according to the dictates of my own conscience.

The great question is, is it a Democrat, taken to a Democratic county. Now to show that Mr. Liles does not know anything about what he is saying, I will tell you who stole me, and where he took me. My friend Venable, a man that favors free whisky and lawlessness, carried me to Christian county, Ky., a county that Republican friends in the air and Democracy in the land, I would not want to go to principles and I defy Mr. Liles or any other good Republican to prove that I did not write it. Let me say to the Democrats, be in cheer; let me say to the voters in August. Let us stand to the point and gain the victory in November. (Sings.)
